But I don't want your boat, or your coat, or your money, or your land. Just give me that thing that God made you for, and which you may have forgotten. "Life is like a train, you don't get off until the end of the line." -- Inuyasha "What goes around, comes around. Revenge is a dish best served cold." -- Itachi Uchiha "When you go into battle without armor on your shoulders, your dignity as a warrior is left behind. When you go into battle without dignity, your armor cannot help you. When you go into battle without honor, your sword is useless. When you go into battle without a sword, you perish. A common fallacy is to perceive that nothing can hurt us, and then pretend that nothing can hurt us (as well as that our feelings are very important to us). An "enemy" of the people will always arise, but one must not attack an idea, because that is an easier target than the human will. "Men are like chimneys, they cannot stop, unless you break them; to stop a man is like to stop a chimney, the best way is to sweep all away." -- Voltaire "All we have to do is to take charge of the education we are getting and take action on the what we learn" It's never too late to change. "Every day we must combat the enemies of science and truth: superstition, ignorance, greed, and arrogance." -- Voltaire "Each day a man is brave when he has no alternative." -- Napoleon Bonaparte "The Republic is not based on ignorance, but on the most intelligent ignorance. When the Republic is not yet in full force, we are the most ignorant people in the world. The force of ignorance is an eternal thing." -- Plato "Ignorance is a choice. You can choose to be ignorant or you can choose to be wise." -- Annie Dillard "To live is to learn, to be awake is to change." -- G.I. "We are born ignorant, but we must be taught." -- Socrates "Life is not about waiting for the storm to pass; it is about learning to dance in the rain." -- Nietzsche "We choose how we see f678ea9f9e
